Re: Temporary Waiver Request of TriStar Bank

Dear Mr. Park:

The undersigned organizations reiterate our concern over the Temporary Waiver Request of TriStar Bank, and we urge the ASC to reject the request as having not satisfied the criteria for under ASC regulations. Under these regulations, a request will not be deemed received by the ASC unless it fully and accurately [emphasis added] sets out:

- The requirement or requirements of State law from which relief is being sought;
- A description of all significant problems currently being encountered in efforts to comply with title XI;
- The nature of the scarcity of certified or licensed appraisers (including supporting documentation);
- The extent of the delays anticipated or experienced in obtaining the services of certified or licensed appraisers (including supporting documentation);
- The reasons why the requester believes that the requirement or requirements are causing the scarcity of certified or licensed appraisers and the service delays;"

Tennessee Appraiser Population

It is difficult to evaluate TriStar's request in total because the ASC has not posted the bank's follow up letter, as it has all other correspondence. However, the ASC rightfully pointed out a multitude of problems with the initial request in its letter dated November 30, 2017, including failing to address requirements for temporary waiver requests, failing to provide key documentation, and failing to show a link between requirements from which relief is sought and problems faced by the bank.

Still, we believe the ASC should reject the request given that no there is no scarcity of appraisers in Tennessee or the market area of TriStar Bank. In fact, the problems identified by TriStar Bank involve commercial appraisal engagements, and this area has seen healthy increases in the appraiser population this decade. More specifically, the number of General Certified Real Property Appraisers has increased 26 percent since 2010, representing the strongest area of appraiser credentialing activity within the state, as shown below:

TriStar Bank Loan Production

To be fair, TriStar Bank has seen commercial-related loan production increases in recent years, as illustrated below<sup>1</sup>.

TriStar Bank "Commercial" Loan Volume - 2010-2017

	2010	2017
Secured by multifamily (5 or more) residential properties	2,107	2,103	0%
Loans secured by owner-occupied nonfarm nonresidential properties	6,081	25,195	314%
Loans secured by other nonfarm nonresidential properties	15,142	29,075	92%
Commercial and industrial loans	7,567	19,131	153%

However, high percentages of these loans are exempt from appraisal requirements under existing regulations. Data from the most recent Call Report indicates:

---

Loans secured by nonfarm nonresidential properties

With original amounts of $100,000 or less	34
With original amounts of more than $100,000 through $250,000	48
With original amounts of more than $250,000 through $1,000,000	43

Percentage of Loans Requiring Appraisals 34%

<sup>1</sup> Data compiled from Call Report, December 31, 2017. Available at <https://cdr.ffiec.gov/public/>

Commercial and industrial loans

With original amounts of $100,000 or less	109
With original amounts of more than $100,000 through $250,000	21
With original amounts of more than $250,000 through $1,000,000	23
Percentage of Loans Requiring Appraisals	0%

Many of these loans would be classified as business loans and fall below the current $1 million business real estate appraisal threshold level. The Call Report does not report the number of loans greater than $1 million or more, however, our experience is that a clear majority of banks make loans less than $1 million. Therefore, it is fair to say that a high percentage of TriStar Bank commercial related loans do not require appraisals anyway.

As illustrated above, TriStar Bank's claim that there is a scarcity of commercial appraisers in Tennessee and/or their coverage area is simply not supported by the facts. The supply of commercial (General Certified) appraisers has seen steady increases this decade, and while TriStar Bank commercial loan volumes have increased, most of this loan activity does not require an appraisal under existing regulations. As such, the ASC should reject the request having not satisfied the requirements for a Temporary Waiver Request.

Thank you in advance for your consideration.
